Home-School Communication via Dojo

The following protocol provides a guideline for the purpose of school Home-School Communication via Dojo and the type of information that may be likely to be included.

Purpose

- To give home/respite an overview of the day, which may include detail about the curriculum, events, daily skills or care information.
- The comments made vis the Dojo App should be positive wherever possible, but truthful.

Who should send home messages?

Any permanent member of the class team or long-term supply staff, may write comments on Dojo but the class teacher is responsible for ensuring that content falls within the guidelines.

Do's

- Aim to write on Dojo every day, but at least three times a week.
- Ensure that information is correct. As with all written documents these comments can be used as sources of evidence.
- Refer any sensitive issues or issues of concern directly to your line manager or the Head Teacher.

Don'ts

- Mention other children by name.
- Discuss sensitive issues in the diary. If the parent/carer raises issues, respond via the telephone or a reply in a sealed envelope. Please make sure your line manager is aware of such issues.
- Use negative or inappropriate comments to describe children or their actions.

If you need any clarification regarding the content of Dojo or a message that you wish to write, please seek further advise form your Line Manager or the Head Teacher
